

Dear Colleagues and Researchers

Date: 17 April 2021

Asia Pacific Division (APD) of the World Federation for Laser Dentistry (WFLD) has been the forerunner in providing evidence-based dental laser education in the Asian Pacific region for more than a decade.

The 2021 APD Scientific Conference will be held ON-LINE from July 16th -17th 2021. The theme of the Conference is on “New Developments in Dental Laser Applications and Education”.

The conference will bring together more than 30 international professionals, clinicians, researchers and educators to present new developments in bio-photonic application and education in Dentistry.

Researchers are also invited to take part in the “Best Scientific Presentation” and “Young Presenter Award” Competitions in this conference, which will be scheduled on the Friday 16th July (4:30 pm to 8:30 pm Japan time), by submitting research abstracts to wfldapd@gmail.com by the deadline of July 5th, 2021. The winners will be announced at the Closing Ceremony.

On behalf of the Organising Committee, we cordially invite you to attend this scientific meeting and join the competition (registration: www.wfldlaser.com).
